

POND: 10 August 1895 Keble's Gazette

Pond at Birchington

Councillor Cousins called attention to the pond on the Canterbury Road. He understood that the County Council were about to wall up the side of the pond next to the road, and suggested that they should be asked to build the wall in a straight line and not follow the bend; by which means the road would be widened by about five feet at a point much needed.