

Accident at Epple

In 1874 there was a boating accident at the Epple Bay Coast Guard Station when two of the Coastguards were drowned. The Vicar, the Rev John Alcock, and his Churchwardens collected over £550 for the benefit of the two widows and their nine children. At this time this was a huge sum of money.