

Framework of Spire

19.

The squat tower was heightened and the spire was added in about 1350 – 60.

Since then the spire has been repaired many times over the centuries with both wooden and metal beams to strengthen and stabilise it. However, the original framework is still clearly visible.

