

Extant Buildings in Birchington:

Listed below are the buildings with medieval and Tudor features which are still standing, though perhaps altered.

- 1 Church Cottage (237 Canterbury Road)
- 2 Jessamine Cottage (241 Canterbury Road)
- 3 Lower Gore End Farm (Old Bay Cottage)
- 4 Primrose Cottage (239 Canterbury Road)
- 5 1, Quex Farm Cottages (Quex Park)
- 6 South End Farm (Court Mount, Canterbury Road))
- 7 Street Farmhouse (230/236/238 Canterbury Road)
- 8 Street Farm Cottages :
- 9 (218 – 220 Canterbury Road)
- 10 Upper Gore End Barn (Minnis Road)
- 11 Southdown House (207 Canterbury Road)

Demolished Buildings in Birchington:

Listed below are the buildings with medieval and Tudor features which have been demolished in the last 200 years.

The date of demolition is in brackets.

- 1 Bedlam Cottage (1939)
- 2 Church Hill Farmhouse (Walnut Tree Cottage) (1967)
- 3 Flint Cottage (1933)
- 4 Ivy House (c.1920)
- 5 Pond Cottage (1933)
- 6 Old House (corner of Albion Road in the Square) (1895)
- 7 Old House (single storey one in Station Road) (1895)
- 8 Old House – Bank site (1925)
- 9 Old Houses – Baker’s & Newsagent’s (1967)
- 10 Quex House (1809)
- 11 Wealden House (Queen’s Head site?) (c. 1855)