

ELIZABETH EVE JESTON died 23rd November 1973 aged just 51

Eve was the much loved wife of Denys Jeston, the joint headmaster of Grenham House School in Grenham Road, Birchington. She died in the garden of the school as she went to pick some herbs for the midday meal.

(Hunting Gate is now built on the site)

(Note from the Parish Magazine of December 1973)
Written by the Rev. Frank Fordham (Vicar)

Elizabeth Eve Jeston

“The sudden death of Eve Jeston came as a stunning blow to the whole village. As one person said to me, “To know Eve was to love her.” That sums it all up – there is nothing more to be said. May she rest in peace.

“To her husband, Denys, we offer our sincere condolences and the assurance of our prayers. It is hard enough for us – how much more difficult it will be for him!”